On November 30, 2016, Farmer Bros. Co. issued the following statement.

Richard Farmer Sends Letter to Farmer Bros. Employees in Support of Board of Directors

FT. WORTH, Texas – November 30, 2016 – Farmer Bros. Co. (NASDAQ: FARM, the “Company” or “Farmer Bros.”) a national coffee roaster, wholesaler and distributor of coffee, tea and culinary products, today announced that Richard Farmer, PhD, a member of the founding Farmer family, provided the Company with a letter he sent to Farmer Bros. employees in support of the Company’s Board of Directors.

The full text of the letter follows:

November 28, 2016

Dear Farmer Bros. Co. Employees,

You may have heard or read about the recent activities of Carol Farmer Waite and the group she has formed to oppose Farmer Bros. Co.’s nominees for reelection to the Board of Directors at the Company’s upcoming 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

This group does not represent all members of the Farmer family, nor does this group represent the views of most of the trusts for which Carol claims to speak. As a member of the Farmer family, as well as a longtime Farmer Bros. stockholder and co-trustee of numerous Farmer family trusts, I fully support the Company’s Board of Directors and management team.

I believe that Mike Keown, the rest of the management team, and Farmer Bros. Co. employees are working together to execute the right strategy to position Farmer Bros. to compete and grow the business over the long term while honoring the guiding principles established by my grandfather and upheld by my father. In my own personal experience, the Board and management team have shown their willingness to engage in a dialogue with stockholders, and I believe they are committed to acting in the best interests of Farmer Bros. and all of the Company’s stockholders and employees.

I also recognize and appreciate the significant improvements to the business that the current leadership team has already made. Since Mike Keown became CEO, the Company’s stock price has nearly tripled in value, creating approximately $400 million in value for stockholders, including you as participants in the Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP). This is a testament to the hard work and dedication throughout the Company; from the Board of Directors, management team, and all employees.

The future of Farmer Bros. and the value of your ESOP shares depend on the management team’s continued execution of the Company’s proven turnaround plan under the leadership of a Board that I believe is highly engaged and independent.

I look forward to supporting the Company’s Board nominees at the Company’s upcoming 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

Sincerely,

Richard F. Farmer

The Farmer Bros. Co. Board and management team appreciate the support of Richard Farmer and remain committed to acting in the best interests of the Company and delivering value to all stockholders.
