Farmer Bros. Urges Stockholders to Follow Recommendation of All Three Proxy
Advisory Firms and Vote “FOR” All Three Farmer Bros. Nominees

December 8th Election Critical to Sustaining Superior Stockholder Value Creation and Continuing Farmer Bros.’ Proven Turnaround Plan

Protect Your Investment in Farmer Bros. by Voting “FOR” Each of Farmer Bros.’
Highly Qualified Director Nominees on the GOLD Proxy Card

FT. WORTH, Texas – November 30, 2016 – Farmer Bros. Co. (NASDAQ: FARM, the “Company” or “Farmer Bros.”) today mailed the following letter to its stockholders in connection with the Company’s upcoming 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on December 8, 2016:

November 30, 2016

Dear Farmer Bros. Co. Stockholder:

The Farmer Bros. 2016 Annual Meeting of Stockholders is quickly approaching. You have recently received mailings about the current Farmer Bros. Board of Directors and management team having a proven track record of driving growth and taking decisive action to create superior stockholder value and ensure the long-term success of the Company. This is contrasted with the risk to your investment in Farmer Bros. posed by the Waite Group, which has offered NO plan for the future of your Company and has nominated three unqualified individuals who would add NO value to your Board.

Last week, ALL THREE proxy advisory firms recommended that stockholders vote “FOR” Farmer Bros.’ nominees – Michael H. Keown, Charles F. Marcy and Christopher P. Mottern. We urge you to protect the value of your investment and the future of Farmer Bros. by following the recommendation of all three proxy advisory firms in support of Farmer Bros.’ three highly qualified nominees. Vote the GOLD proxy card today.

ALL THREE PROXY ADVISORY FIRMS RECOMMEND VOTING “FOR” FARMER BROS.’
THREE HIGHLY QUALIFIED NOMINEES AND WE URGE STOCKHOLDERS
TO FOLLOW THEIR RECOMMENDATION

In its November 23, 2016 report, Institutional Shareholder Services concluded:

- “It seems difficult to dispute the fact that the current board and CEO have been the main driver behind the turnaround of Farmer Bros., having delivered an impressive improvement of the company fundamentals and strong appreciation of the company’s stock, from $11.83 in 2012 to $34.10 in 2016.”
- “The dissident has also failed to demonstrate that it is adequately prepared to address any downside risks associated with this contest: although an election victory would leave the dissident group with a majority of the board, none of the members of such a reconstituted board seem to possess any outside board experience or relevant industry knowledge or operational expertise beyond that gained during their years at the company. The lack of relevant experience of certain members of the dissident slate also raises serious concerns as to whether the dissident group’s interests are truly aligned with those of unaffiliated shareholders.” (Emphasis added)
- “Furthermore, the dissident group has likewise failed to present any future plan for the company that is clearly superior to the strategy developed by the current board—which has demonstrated strong results.”

In its November 24, 2016 report, Glass Lewis concluded the Waite Group has not made a compelling caseⁱⁱ:

- “We question the logic of seeking to refresh the board by [reelecting] a former director (Mr. Samore, Jr.) and a former employee of the Company who recently retired from the Company in 2015 (Mr. Mortensen). Further, Dissident Nominee Gonzalez-Yousef does not appear to have any particularly relevant qualifications for service on the board. Overall, in our view, the Dissident is seeking to replace three well qualified incumbent directors, including the CEO of the Company, with three significantly less qualified candidates.” (Emphasis added)
- “We find that the Company has outperformed peers and the broad market since Mr. Keown was appointed CEO in 2012 as well as over the more recent one-year and three-year periods. Furthermore, the Company’s operating performance has improved under the leadership of the incumbent board and management, in our view, as demonstrated by revenue and EBITDA growth and improved EBITDA margins from FY2012 through FY2016.”
- “On the broader theme of capital allocation, we believe eliminating dividends to shareholders was a prudent and necessary action in light of the Company’s financial difficulties prior to the appointment of Mr. Keown.”

In its November 23, 2016 report, Egan-Jones concluded voting “FOR” Farmer Bros. nominees is in the best interest of the Company and stockholders, notingⁱⁱⁱ:

- “...the dissident shareholders have not offered a comprehensive strategic plan compared to what current management is executing [that] would likely be better in terms of risk and shareholder value.”
- “We are not convinced that the Waite Group’s nominees would work to the benefit of the shareholders given their level of industry expertise, public company experience and diversity.”
- “We believe that electing the dissident shareholders’ nominees could compromise their independence due to affiliations to the Waite Group.”
- “...the solicitation being made by the dissidents could disrupt the ongoing efforts of the management toward the implementation of the strategic plan. We recognize the management’s efforts, led by the new CEO Michael H. Keown, in maximizing stockholder value, generating volume and profit growth and building an organization with accountability and sustainability.” (Emphasis added)

VOTE “FOR” THE FARMER BROS. BOARD THAT IS DELIVERING SUPERIOR STOCKHOLDER VALUE AND IMPROVED
OPERATIONAL AND FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE

- Vote “FOR” your Board which has overseen an appreciation in the Company’s stock price of over 225% and value creation for all stockholders of over $400 million^{iv}.
- Vote “FOR” your Board’s and management team’s successful execution of a proven turnaround plan that has returned Farmer Bros. to profitability.
- Vote “FOR” the Board’s thorough planning and oversight of a corporate relocation that is expected to produce annualized cost savings of approximately $18 million to $20 million.

- Vote “FOR” your Board which has enhanced governance and brought fresh perspectives under a new independent Chairman appointed in 2015 and five new directors who were added in the past five years.
- Vote “FOR” Farmer Bros.’ three highly qualified nominees who each have C-level executive leadership experience and who collectively bring more than 100 years of experience in the food and food service industries.
- Vote “FOR” your Board which also has the support of Richard Farmer, a member of the founding Farmer family who owns approximately 0.6 million shares and a co-trustee of numerous Farmer family trusts that collectively own over 2.1 million shares.

PROTECT YOUR INVESTMENT BY VOTING THE GOLD PROXY CARD TODAY

It is clear that the Waite Group fails to provide any plan for the Company’s future or any changes to the Company’s current operating model or strategic decisions that would enhance stockholder returns. Electing the Waite Group nominees puts your investment in Farmer Bros. at risk by effectively placing control of the Board in the Waite Group’s hands, which would put the Company’s leadership at risk and would derail the Company’s proven turnaround plan.

We are confident that the current Farmer Bros. Board, including our three nominees – Michael H. Keown, Charles F. Marcy and Christopher P. Mottern – is well positioned to guide the Company into the future and maximize value for all stockholders. We strongly urge you to follow the recommendation of the three proxy advisory firms by voting “FOR” Farmer Bros. director nominees on the GOLD proxy card today.

On behalf of your Board of Directors, we thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,

/s/ Randy E. Clark

Randy E. Clark
Chairman of the Board
